

Tax Agent Services Act 2009 - Disclosure Statement

We are a registered BAS Agent as required to provide BAS Services (including advice, interpretation, interactions with the ATO, and lodgement of forms regarding GST, BAS, Payroll, and the Superannuation Guarantee). Any practitioner providing these services must be a registered BAS Agent or Tax Agent.

We are subject to the Code of Conduct prescribed in the Tax Agent Services Act 2009 and additional determinations. The Tax Practitioners Board (the board) regulates Registered Agents. We are also required to adhere to the ATO's requirements in our interactions with their Online Services and use of other relevant software.

We advise as follows:

I / We advise that to the best of our knowledge and based on all information known to us, we

- Have not committed a prior material breach of the Act or instruments made under the Act.
- Are not being investigated by the Board on any matter of a material breach.
- Are not subject to any sanctions imposed by the Board.
- There are no conditions that apply to our registration.
- Have not been disqualified from providing services.
- Do not have as employees nor engage with others who have been disqualified from providing services; we have appropriate and required processes and systems of supervision and quality control of all work performed on our behalf.
- Have not had any charge or conviction relating to an offence relating to fraud or dishonesty.
- Have not had any imposition of a promoter penalty under the tax law; or
- Had any charge or conviction relating to a tax offence.

We are not aware of any matter that we have not otherwise discussed or presented to you that would significantly influence your decision to engage or continue to engage our services. If there is anything you would like to discuss, please contact us.
